

EXODEA Europe was established in September 2004, since then we have experienced unprecedented growth, evidenced by ongoing repeat business from existing clients and expansion into new areas of activity. If you are interested in becoming part of young, energetic and dynamic company, send your CV to Operations Manager, Gráinne Lynch at info@exodea-europe.com

Applicants should exhibit the following:

- You are likely to have a 2.1 or better degree in Economics, Business, Sociology or another applied social science. You may also have a post-graduate qualification, perhaps with an applied research dimension;
- You will have some knowledge of qualitative and/or quantitative research techniques and of undertaking a literature review, and you may have existing knowledge of typical Irish socio-economic data sources;
- You will have good basic computer skills, perhaps with additional knowledge of statistical, publishing or other applied software packages;
- You will have good communication and writing skills, a general interest in public policy and business, and be able to make clear presentations to clients;
- You will be an enthusiastic team player who is able to work on your own initiative and identify new business opportunities

All positions will be based in our state of the art office in Mallow, Co. Cork.

Associate Positions

EXODEA Europe has a large base of professional associates in the following fields: marketing, economics, tourism and leisure, branding, finance, public sector, agriculture and food, the environment. members, whose skills embrace the core socio-economic disciplines within the European context. The organisation has additional expertise in the provision of associated professional and technical training, and has strategic alliances with third level academic institutions for the delivery of tailored accredited courses.

We are constantly seeking professional associates with whom we can work on a project by project basis. We are particularly interested in hearing from the following disciplines:

- Environmental Management
- Economics
- Ecology
- Financial Management
- Pure Research and Statistics

Any work is agreed on a project-by-project basis with the research consultant, and working arrangements are flexible. Support is provided to researchers undertaking any agreed tasks by our in-house consulting team.

If you are interested in joining our panel of associate consultants, please send a CV, and details of any research experience or interests you have, to info@exodea-europe.com

We look forward to hearing from you!

Traineeships

EXODEA Europe is committed to supporting European integration and educational mobility by offering between 1 and 2 student traineeships per year. Students who are interested in undertaking practical work experience in the Socio-Economic consultancy sector are welcome to submit applications for temporary positions.

All positions will be based at our offices in Mallow, Co. Cork and will consist of the following work duties:

- Socio- Economic Research
- Report writing
- Documentation
- Community consultation and facilitation (support work only)
- Project preparation

The company will pay a small subsistence allowance to support the work experience.